

Student

ULS Website

ULS Database

Registrar Database

Student logs in Student clicks register website retrieves course list database returns course list get preconditions

return exam pre conditions opt

[registration is tentative]

Student registers for an exam

send tentative registration notify tentative registration

display successful registration

[registration is definite]

Student registers for an exam

send definite registration notify definite registration

display successful registration

Students shall be able to login to the ULS to register for exams